

Doing Business in the UK

A fully outsourced business solution can provide an efficient and cost-effective entry into the UK market.

As the fifth largest economy in the world with a diverse market, the UK is a key jurisdiction for business owners with global expansion plans. But doing business in new territories means a new set of rules and regulations to navigate – an experienced guide is vital to reduce the risk of incurring unnecessary costs and resources.

Advisory and accounting firm PKF Smith Cooper is well-positioned to help you establish your business in the competitive UK market. Situated in the Midlands near the UK's largest commercial airport and at the heart of the UK's only inland Freeport economic zone, our company combines global business connections and strong regional knowledge to deliver high-value outcomes for owners and entrepreneurs.

How we can help you do business in the UK

Our expert business advisers at PKF Smith Cooper can help you take advantage of the benefits of doing business in the UK, while also helping you navigate and overcome potential challenges.

Our award-winning and cost-effective advisory and compliance services cover all UK business operations, giving trusted support and added value at every stage of the business life cycle.

From company incorporation to specialist tax, accounts and VAT and Customs Duty support, our multidisciplinary team possesses in-depth knowledge and experience across a broad range of sectors, allowing us to deliver a fully bespoke service tailored to your needs and objectives. Our services can also be extended to helping you identify 3PL warehouse solutions and Customs Duty representation should these be required.

Our complete outsourcing solution ensures initial investment costs are kept to a minimum.

We can also help you stay ahead of the curve by keeping you informed of impending legislative changes that could impact your international trading operations and adapting your strategies to maintain cross-border compliance.
